In 2009, Vinke made her film debut in the movie The Divine Sarah. The movie is a biopic about the life of Sarah Bernhardt, a French actress who was known for her flamboyant style and passionate performances. Vinke's performance in the movie was highly praised, and she was nominated for a Golden Globe Award for Best Actress.

Since then, Vinke has appeared in a number of films and television shows, including the movies The Lobster (2015), The Girl on the Train (2016), and Red Sparrow (2018). She has also appeared in the television series The Crown (2016-2019) and The Witcher (2019-present).

The Quest for the Origin of Robert Pirsig

In addition to her acting career, Vinke is also a filmmaker. In 2017, she directed the documentary film The Origin of Robert Pirsig. The film explores the life and work of Robert Pirsig, the author of the novel Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance.

Pirsig's novel is a semi-autobiographical account of a motorcycle trip he took with his son. The novel explores themes of philosophy, religion, and the meaning of life. It has been translated into more than 30 languages and has sold more than 5 million copies worldwide.

Vinke's documentary film explores the origins of Pirsig's ideas. She interviews Pirsig's friends, family, and colleagues, and she examines the influences that shaped his thinking. The film provides a fascinating insight into the mind of one of the most influential writers of the 20th century.

The Divine Sarah and the Quest for the Origin of Robert Pirsig
