A Legacy of Acceptance and Inclusivity

The story of Lesbian Hidemi Woods began in the 1970s, when a group of lesbian women envisioned a space where they could escape the prejudices and discrimination they faced in society. Fueled by a desire for acceptance and community, they purchased a 160-acre property in the remote wilderness of Washington State and established Lesbian Hidemi Woods as a safe haven for lesbian travelers. Over the years, the retreat has become a beacon of hope and a testament to the power of community and acceptance.
